

Towpath access between pump station & I-20 Restored

(March 15, 2010) Augusta Utilities Department contractors completed work to reinforce Canal banks and restored pedestrian access to the towpath in mid-March, 2010

The work involved installing a compacted clay buttress along the river edge of the narrowest portion of the Canal embankment, just downstream of the Rock Creek gates.