

Canal Quotes: Who Said That?
Student Activity Sheet 4-5 B

Read the panels and listen to the recordings in the Augusta Canal Interpretive Center to find the speaker or source for each quote.

Stated in 1845: “One of the boldest steps ever yet taken in the Southern States...”

Stated in 1848: “Though it is a monstrous pretty city, it aint the place it use to was, not by a grate site.”

Stated in 1912: “There are thousands who have lost everything.”

Stated in 1850: “It is the duty and ought to be the pleasure of every citizen to do something for the public good.”

Stated in 1848: “I went to the large factory in Augusta, where there is two hundred persons operating.”

Stated in 1902: “We just want a better life like everyone else...we work all day and we’re still poor as dirt...we’re only lookin’ for a better wage.”

Stated in 1890: “Watch out for them belts!”

Write your own quote about the Augusta Canal on the line below.

Canal Quotes: Who Said That?
Student Activity Sheet 4-5 B

Read the panels and listen to the recordings in the Augusta Canal Interpretive Center to find the speaker or source for each quote.

Stated in 1845: "One of the boldest steps ever yet taken in the Southern States..."

South Carolina Newspaper (Located in front of dirt pile.)

Stated in 1848: "Though it is a monstrous pretty city, it aint the place it use to was, not by a grate site."

Major Jones, Fictional Narrator of Public Opinion
(Located next to cotton bale.)

Stated in 1912: "There are thousands who have lost everything."

Mayor William Dunbar (Located at floods and fires display.)

Stated in 1850: "It is the duty and ought to be the pleasure of every citizen to do something for the public good."

Henry Cumming (Located on bronze plaque near entry.)

Stated in 1848: "I went to the large factory in Augusta, where there is two hundred persons operating."

Georgia Farmer (Spoken in Movie)

Stated in 1902: "We just want a better life like everyone else...we work all day and we're still poor as dirt...we're only lookin' for a better wage."

Woman at the Gate (Spoken by cut out striker figures at black gate)

Stated in 1890: "Watch out for them belts!"

Sweeper Boy (Spoken at statue of boy with broom.)

Write your own quote about the Augusta Canal on the line below.

4th & 5th Anticipation Guide

- The 4-5 grades anticipation guide can be found in the pre-visit classroom activities even though it is completed as an on-site activity.
- These worksheets should be used in the classroom and then brought with your group to the Center.